

"Diamond Staid Overalls" Warranted not to Rip.

ST. JOE NEWS.

VOL. 1.

SATURDAY, MAY 29, 1880.

No. 8.

Decoration Day.

When summer, in all her bright verdure,
Gives to us her emblems of love;
The beautiful, fragrant flowers,
Sent to us, by the Maker above:
We gather from among them the choicest,
And wreath them in garlands, so fair,
And deck the graves of the brave ones,
Who are free, now, from toil and care.
They fought and died for their country,
And severed, forever in twain,
The head of sin cursed slav'ry,
Which never can rise again.
To them we owe our freedom,
To them we owe many a prayer,
Let us give, then, with hearts full of love,
Our offering of garlands so fair.
When the curtain of the misty future,
Shall be lifted from before our sight;
And we stand on the beautiful Zion,
In the glorious, noonday light,
May our comrads and fallen heroes,
All be gathered to-gather there,
And be crowned with that crown of glory,
Which the brave ones deserve to wear.

Programme of Decoration Exercises.

To be held at Newville, on Sunday, May 30th.

The decoration exercises at Newville, next Sunday, as near as we have been informed, are as follows:

All are requested to meet at Ashleman's Grove, near the cemetery, at One o'clock, sharp; and after the usual opening exercises, R. Wes. McBride, of Waterloo, will deliver an address; after which, they will repair to the cemetery, and 50 little Boys and Girls, trained for the occasion, will proceed to decorate the graves of our fallen braves. After the exercises there, they will go to the Coburn-town cemetery, and decorate the graves of the soldiers who are buried there.

Let every one turn out and pay a tribute of honor and respect to those, who died in their country's defence.

Esquire Barney, of Spencerville, whilst on his way to Elgin, Ill., last Wednesday, made us a short, but pleasant, call.

The supervisor has been putting some work in on the roads, to good advantage, this week.

The B. & O. R. R. Co. talk of putting down steel rails this summer. We should think it needed steel rails, at least between here and Auburn. The road is so rough that a man don't know what minute he might be jerked off his seat and stood on his head; or be thrown out of the window. But such is life.

Jake was heard calling across the fence to his neighbor's son, a colored youth who goes to school at the Atlanta colored university:

"Look hyar, boy, you goes ter school, don't yer?"

"Yes sir," replied the boy.

"Gittin' eddykashun, ain't yer?"

"Yes sir."

"Well, it don't take two whole days to make a hour, do it?"

"W'y no! exclaimed the boy.

"You was gwine to bring back dat hatchet in an hour, warn't you?"

"Yes sir."

"An' it's bin two days since yer borrowed it. Now, what good's eddykashun gwine ter do you thick-skulled niggers when yer go ter school a whole year an' den can't tell how long it takes to fetch back a hatchit?"

The boy got mad and slung the hatchet over the fence and half way through an ash barrel.
